A RETRACTION .- The speaking Fifth Avenue Committee, who so villainously libelled Greggy Smith and other men in connection with the John Baown foray, and refused to ratract their slanders when re-

Suitu retracting their slander, and humbly apologizing. Mr. Smith consequently withdraws his likel suit.

CRAWFORD COUNTY-OFFICIAL,-The Prairie du Chien Courier bringe us the official vote of Crawford county. It stands thus: Lincoln 828; Douglas 832; Breckinridge 12: Hanchett 833; Reymert 836 .--Thomas, (Rep) for Assembly 82 majority. Johnson, (Rep.) elected from the District (Crawford and Bad Ame) by several hundred. Democratic county ticket elected except County Clerk; Brunner (Rep) having 9 majority for the office.

KISTUCKY ELECTION .- The Louisville Courier, of the 13th, gave the vote, official and reported, of 74 counties, with the following result: Bell, 53,578; Breckinridge, 36,623; Douglas, 24,623. There are 26 counties to be heard from. Kentucky has doubtless given a jority for BELL. The Democratic candidates have hard luck; each losing his own State; on the other hand, Mr. Lincoln and Mr. BELL each carries his own State. BROWN COUNTY-OFFICIAL .- The Green Bay Advocate, of the . 15th inst , contains the official convers of Brown county. The yote is as follows:

Douglas, 1.272; Lincoln, 894; 398 maj.-Larrabee, 1,275; Sloan, 880; 395 maj. All the Democratic county ticket, excspt Sheriff, elected; D. W. Whitney, (Rep.) beating his Democratio opponent 120

SAUK COUNTY-OFFICIAL .- The Baraboo Republic gives the following official figures for Sauk county:

Lincelri, 2,309; Douglas, 255, maj 1,324. Hanchett, 2,308; Raymond, 1,026, maj 1,-282. Breckinridge received 29, and Bell 2 votes.

Every town in the county gave Republican majoritles.

LINCOLN IN DELAWARE .- For a Slave State, Delaware didn't do so badly in the late election. The returns stand as follows: BRESEINBIDGE 6,146, LINCOLN 3,751, BELL 3,272, Douglas 992. Look at that! A "Sectional" candidate, who dared not go down into Kentucky to visit the graves of his ancestors, beating Douglas, a "National" candidate; nearly three thousand votes in a Slave State!

A NORTH CAROLINA SENTINGHT. - Speak-Ing of the present orisis, the Wilmington, (N. C.) Herald speaks thus cheeringly for the good old State: "We will have trouble and there's no use in shutting our eyes to it; but we feel assured that the old North State will stand firm, and whatever may be her determination, that she will act for herself, and not for the 'Cotton States,"?

POPULATION OF WISCONSIN.—The census of Wisconsile, just compliced, shows a most gratifying increased in the population of that industrious, prosperous, and weath-producing State. Her total population to will still the state of "There's luck in odd numbers." Wisconsin is, emphatically, "teven up."

WALWORTH COUNTY.—The official majority for John F. Portru in Walworth county (his home) is 2,370. His majority In the District is but little short of twenty-eight hundred. Oconto County .- The Oconto Pioneer reports 281 majority for Lincoln, 357 for Sloan, and 462 for Finley, for Assembly.

The entire Republican ticket is elected. A Myster. - We are informed that on Friday last a deg belonging to Mr. Robert Gibson, at Bay Settlement, and a log, were seen devouring a human arm. The remains were taken from them and buried, and efforts

"Bears" on the Slave Market. The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard throws out suggestions that the grand object of those who are now oreating such a turnoit in the cotton States, is not to produce sacession, either now or after Mr. Lincoln's inauguration, but to create a panic among slaveholders of the border States, so that they may be induced to part with their regrees at a great residue. sacrifice. Under these circumstances our contemporary advises its readers to hold on to that species of property, as the value which has been lately depressed, will soon recover its former height.

The surmiss may not be without foundation. Already several reports have been received from the golf States, amouncing very considerable downfall in the price of slaves. These statements come Notthward at a time when, above all, there should be at a time when, above all, there should be no weakness in the knees, if secession were the object really contemplated by those who talk up so loadly. But if the design, on the part of certain negro 'operators' was to apread an alarm among the slaveholders in Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Kentacky, &2, their purpose would be effectually answered by the reports.

It will be observed, too, that the election of Lincoln puts a veto on the African slave trade; the hope of getting a cheap supply of hands from that quarter has, therefore, been hands from that quarter has, therefore, been doomed to disappointment. The next shrewd operation of traders would be to get supply from the border States at panic prices.

We incline to believe that the surmises of of Marathon county toots up as sonows.

Douglas, 431; Lincoln, 219; Breckisridge 2; the Standard are at least "founded upon Bell, 1; Reymert, 450; Hanchett, 251. The fact," and that the "bears" have actually made a decent upon the slave market.

Wall street is thus transferred from this city.

Wall street is thus transferred from this city. Demograte claimed this county by and to one majority. The Republicans are rejoicing at the fact that they are 100 votes better off than they expected. Yours, &c.,

M. M. Charles.

PRESERVE YOUR TORGHES.—We wish to suggest to the Little Giant and Wide Awake Clubs of the city that measures should be adopted by each, by which the torches of the several Clubs could be saved for future use on holiday and anniversary occasions, and for such celebrations of public events as may be proper for all parties to unite in a common cause. Torchlight processions are at all times very agreeable and beautiful features of a celebration; and if the torches are preserved we can hereafter vary the usual icentures of a Fourth of July celebration by a procession in the evening. It will be quite as attractive as the old pyroteolnic exhibition, and will not cost half the money that is usually expended upon fireworks.

From the Charleston Mercury, Dec. 17, 1832. gerous—in this case, peculiarly so. In Wisconsin, four years ago, a fierce snow-storm Jackson against the state of South Carolina, consin, four years ago, a fierce snow-atorm overspread the State the day before that prescribed for the meeting of the Electoral Colleges, so that the Electors did not assemble nor ballot till the day after that appointed. The vote of the State for Fremont and Dayton was consequently objected to in Congress on the day fixed by law for opening the returns and preclaiming officially the result; and it evidently would not have been received and counted without a struggle bad anything depended upon it. Let there be no melatake and no chance for cavil this lime."

We have already called the attention of We have siready called the attention of the Presidential Electors in Wisconsin to this matter, and do not doubt that each and creams will hait it as a brave blow in the cause of treason.

From the Charleston Mercury, Dec. 19, 1832. tal, on or before the arat Wednesday in De-sender, ready and willing to cast the vote of the State for Abraham Lincoln and Han-MIRAL HAMLIN.

The crisis for which every resolute and intelligent Carolina Whig has long been pre-pared has come. The efficacy of our reme-dy has been demonstrated. We were told dy has been demonstrated. We were told it would be inefficient; it has proved so potent that an infuriated administration has been compelled, in despair of otherwise defeating us, to resort to brute force. We have always said that our ramedy was of right paceful—we never said it would necessarily be peaceful—it is always in the power of a had man to outrage right by violence, if unrestrained by principie or a fact of couse queness personal to himself. Gen. Jackson has not farmished the first example. There has has been a Coast, a Crouwell, and a Bonaparte—men of towering genius who have stooped to play the usurper. Why may not an inferior spirit, without as much heart as either, and with none of their genit. heart as either, and with none of their genius, aspire to meet them in those actions of their lives, which alone he can imitate because they are criminal.

In the Legislature, Mr. Pickens declared the b-lieved the contest would end in blood. The document of the President was none less than the edict of a tyrant; and if they

A Screw Loose in the Szension Magnifer.—The South Carolina Legislature do not find everything going smoothly for secession. The question of ways and mesna seems likely to give them trouble. A resolution for raising a million of dollars for the defence of the State brought a Mr.
Johnshon to his fest, who said that "although he was as much in earnest as any one, he was not willing to raise a million of dollars without indicating how that money

A STATE RIGHTS DEMOGRAT ON BEDISSION.—That veterau defender of States rights, old Father Rivorus, who had such an indusce upon the opinion of Virginla politicians of his time, and, we may add, upon the Demogratic party of his time, wrote as follows in the Richmond Enquirer of November 1, 1814:

A CHICAGO ZOHANK CHALLENGED.—The Cleveland Heraid says: "Everybody remembers the saucy-looking little Frenchman, Surgeon De Villiers, of the Chicago Zonave Cadets. Of all the dashing fellows in the company, perhaps no one had to so great an extent the appearance of a "real Zouave", or carried himself with such soldierly ease and half-reckless bearing as De Villiers. The Surgeon is a proficient in the sword exercise; and has received a challenge from the somewhat celebrated swords. when posite."

he slowly walked away, resolving in his own mind many plans for the future.

Flattering himself that he was actuated by motives of disinterested benevolence, Tom Hubert sought and obtained an introduction to Mrs. Carleton and her daughter. Almost every evening found him a welcome guest at the cottage, and ere many weeks had passed, he loved Clara Carleton as he never loved before. Clara returned his love with all the order of a young and trusting heart, and ere the mother had passed from earth, she sanctioned their le rothment, and as they stood before her, laying her almost pulseless hand upon their towed heads, she blessed them with her dying breath.

The chill winds of autumn sighed a mountful requiem as that loved mother was mournful requiem as that loved mother was laid to rest in the peaceful shades of the country cometery; and the sorrow stricken daughter was welcomed to the cheerful home Congh or cold mekes alarming progress if neglected for a few days. Through the influence of Mr. Hubert.

Clars, when she was eighteen, received an advantageous offer to go to a western city as governess in a wealthy family, but I om overheard the plan of his father and sister, and he had his plan also. A few days later, Clara Carleton had left town, and when Mr. and Mrs. Hardy were onestioned they reand Mrs. Hardy were questioned, they replied that Clara was with a friend and would eventually return. Tom was apparently as much surprised as any one to learn that Clara had left town, and as he never spoke of her afterward, his father and sister would have entirely forcetten has hed he net lear have entirely forgotten her, had he not been indifferent to the most fescinating belles. Meanwhile Clara was residing with a friend of Mr. Hardy in a pleasant village not far from Boston, and pursuing her studies. The cottage formerly occupied by Mrs. Carleton had a new nurchaser and was be-Carleton, had a new purchaser and was being thoroughly repaired, while the emballishment of the ground received many an eritatio touch, and when in early autumn it was to be completed, it was to be town.—

Furniture was sent to see to its arrangepane, and gazing up at the stars—are you moon-struck or love-sick?" said Thomas Hubert. Sr. to his only son, but Thomas,
Jr., did not reply, and the old man added,
"I say, Tom, it's high time you began think of marrying? Why don't you answer me—do you see Clara Carleton peeping out from among the stars?"

"Been talking this half hour, but nothing could bring you to your senses till said Clara-so you remember that girl yet?" said the father, a slight frown resting on his brow.

"It is not so easy forgetting such a lovely countenance," was the zeply.

"Oh, he! you're no longer a boy, Tom; but instead of appearing manly, you have become as sentimental as a girl. Why don't you yet married? There's Bell Griffin, thandome, and rioh; the would make you a splendid wife," said the father.

"Sho's a selfish creature, and there's nothing lovely about her," said Tom.

"Mary Ray, my dearest friend, will be here next week, and I wish you would marry her. Will you think of it? that's a dear good brother," said his sister Lucy, laying her head upon his arm.

"Mary Ray has no mind of her own, and that's the reason why you like her so well: I want a wife who can think for horself," said Tom.

"And who will suit you?" asked Lucy

Tom had married Clara Carleton: and mpany nue. Tom had married Clara Carleton; and Tom had married Clara Carleton; and Lucy found that Clara was not only highly accomplished, but her education was superior to het own, and most of these with whom she associated. And the following winter when Tom's wife entered fashionable society in New York, her "awkward manners" did not cause Lucy to blush, but she was proud of her lovely and accomplished sitter in "How should I know? Didn't you and father try to maneuvre her out of my way? of her lovely and accomplished sister-ing for a reply, he left the room.

FOR THE DAILY SENTINGL.

The Distance Movement. MILLEDGRVILLE, Ga., Nov. 15.

There was considerable disoussion in the Sensie, to-day, on the motion referring to the million dollars appropriation bill for arms and ammunition to the Finance Committee. The bill provides that the monsey be subject to the control of Government.

Many Sensiors object to the placing of the Manda. when sy be subject to the control of ovvertment. Many Senstors object to the placing of the sword and purse in the same hands, when the supposed reference foiled. The bill will proceed in regular order, and will pass.

A bill was introduced, suspending the collection of debts till 1961. Laid over.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. A letter from a strong cotton house in Charleston says there is really no unanimity even in South Carolina, for secession. The business men, bankers, and merchants, and all the professional classes, are decidedly opposed to secession.

Special cor. of the World: South Carolina will, under no circumstances, back down from the position she has taken. She is now virtually out of the Union. The U.S. dig is not recognized in any part of the State.

Senator Chesnot, it is said, will preside in the Convention.

Baltimore offers Gov. Gist 100 men. Individual applications for Military ap-pointments are numberless.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 15. Charleston, Nov. 15, Another tremendous demonstration took place to night, to welcome the Charleston delegation. Institute Hall was magnificently adorned by ladies, with motions, henners and pulmetto branches. Ornwas througed in and around it. Addresses of welcome were presented until deafening obserts. State Standars Porter and Despares. Saughors Porter and Daquesue, and Representatives, Buist, O'Counor, Whitley, Fendon, Pope, Ramsey, Senator Collin and others, delivered stirring addresses—alt breathing the sentiment that there was malternate left South Carolina save instant se cession, or eternal disgrace and ruin. CHARLESTON, Nov. 15.

A large Palmetto tree was erected this evening in front of Institute Hall.

An immense meeting was held, and facing the speakers' stand was a large transparency, "Well, done, good and faithful servants." Mayor MoBeth presided and made a fine speech. R. W. FALL WESET IN CRAWFORD COUNTY, The Profile du Chien Courier ange:
We hear from all the region round about this locality, that more wheat heaben somed this fall than ever belong some friends say it is one half more. The quantity upon the ground last year was greater than ever belong, and the success of the crop has stimulated every farmer to put in wheat upon every acree of ground that was to and not upoded for their crops for their own use. Sancely a fall where corn green this year, can now be seen without a carpit of young wheat and everywhere it locks most promising.
